Best Paper Awards for AIT students

Mr. Francis Canisius, a staff member of the Asian Center for Research on Remote Sensing (ACRoRS) and an employee Doctoral student in the Space Technology Applications and Research Program (STAR) Program, School of Advanced Technologies (SAT), received the Best Young Speakers Award for his paper, Three Dimensional Detection of Volcanic Deposits on Mount Mayon Using Synthetic Aperture Radar (SAR) Interferometry. The paper was presented at the recent Asian Conference on Remote Sensing, which was held in Singapore on 5-9 November. It was selected from over 300 papers received from 25 countries.

Mr. Canisius' presentation is part of his Doctoral research. On his Doctoral Research Committee are Dr. Kiyoshi Honda, Director of ACRoRS, as Chairman, Dr. Mitsuharu Tokunaga as Co-Chairman, and Prof. Shunji Murai, Prof. Tawatchai Tingsanchali, and Dr. Apisit Eiumnoh as members.

Decision Support System Using Knowledge Base for the Electronics Industry, a paper co-written by Mr. Shilpi Kalra, a Master student in the Industrial Systems Engineering Program, SAT, and Dr. Nitin Afzulpurkar, ISE Program Coordinator, won the Best Paper Award at the 12th International Danube Adria Association for Automation and Manufacturing (DAAAM) Symposium on Intelligent Manufacturing & Automation: Focus on Precision Engineering. The award consisted of a Gold Medal and a Certificate.

Mr. Kalra presented the paper at the symposium which was held at Jena University of Applied Sciences, Jena, Germany, on 24-27 October. A total of 450 papers were submitted by international authors, out of which 199 were accepted and presented.
